I hope that all of our Bearcat families had an AWESOME Thanksgiving Vacation!

Can you believe we are already wrapping up November? We have a ton of events coming up, so make sure to watch Facebook, Instagram, and text messages for more info!

Did you know that a new school is opening in the Clovis East Area in the 2020 school year? With a new school, means we will have boundary changes. If you want more information on the boundary changes, please join us at a community meeting on December 5th at 6:30 in the Clovis East MPR. This will be an opportunity to get parent feedback on boundary proposals. If you have any questions before then, please see the informational page on the website or send me an email!
